

Special Issue on Business, Finance and Investment

Call for Papers

Financial investment is also called "securities investment". Financial investment is not only a financial behavior of a company, but also an important part of its business development strategy. Due to the constant development and improvement of modern financial markets, the importance of financial investment has become increasingly prominent. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Business, Finance and Investment.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Business, Finance and Investment. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Private equity and infrastructure investment
- Mergers and acquisition
- Investment strategy and technical analysis
- Portfolio investment and economic growth
- Financial investment and risk management
- Private equity and infrastructure investment
- Investment model
- Financial software
- Investment valuation: tools and techniques
- Debt markets and development

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the "Special Issue" under your manuscript title. The research field "Special Issue - Business, Finance and Investment" should be selected during your submission.
