

Special Issue on Business, Management and Strategy

Call for Papers

Business, Management, and Strategy aims to present innovative research and practical insights into how organizations operate, compete, and evolve in dynamic environments. This issue welcomes contributions that explore strategic planning, organizational behavior, leadership, marketing, finance, operations, entrepreneurship, and corporate governance. By integrating theoretical models with empirical analysis and case studies, the issue seeks to advance understanding of effective business practices and strategic decision-making. Interdisciplinary perspectives and research addressing global challenges, digital transformation, and sustainability in business are especially encouraged.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Business, Management and Strategy. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Business analytics
- Business ethics
- Business model innovation
- Change management
- Competitive strategy
- Corporate governance
- Digital transformation
- Entrepreneurship
- Financial management
- Human resource management
- Innovation management
- International business
- Leadership studies
- Marketing strategy
- Operations management
- Organizational behavior
- Risk management
- Strategic management
- Supply chain management
- Sustainability in business

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - *Business, Management and Strategy” should be selected during your submission.
