

Special Issue on Business and Financial Innovation

Call for Papers

Business and Financial Innovation focuses on emerging trends, transformative strategies, and technological advancements that are reshaping modern business models and financial systems. It examines how digital technologies, data-driven decision-making, innovative financial instruments, and entrepreneurial practices contribute to organizational growth, market competitiveness, and economic resilience. By integrating insights from management, finance, economics, and technology studies, this issue highlights innovative solutions that drive efficiency, sustainability, and value creation in an increasingly dynamic global business environment.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Business and Financial Innovation. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Behavioral finance and consumer insights
