

Special Issue on

Early Childhood Education and Development

Call for Papers

Early Childhood Education and Development is an interdisciplinary field focused on the education, care and holistic development of young children. It examines early learning, cognitive and language development, social-emotional growth, play-based learning, curriculum design, family involvement, inclusive education, and early childhood pedagogy. The field also explores how educational environments, relationships, and social factors influence children's development and learning outcomes during the early years.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Early Childhood Education and Development. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:
