

Special Issue on Case Reports on Cardiology

Call for Papers

Case Reports on Cardiology focus on documenting and analyzing individual or rare clinical cases related to heart diseases and cardiovascular conditions. These reports provide detailed accounts of diagnosis, treatment, interventions and patient outcomes, highlighting unique presentations, complications or responses to therapies. They contribute to medical knowledge by offering insights into novel treatments, unusual manifestations, or clinical challenges, supporting evidence-based practice, medical education and the advancement of cardiology research.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Case Reports on Cardiology. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Coronary artery disease cases
- Heart failure cases
- Electrophysiology and cardiac arrhythmias
- Congenital heart disease cases
- Valvular heart disease
- Structural heart disease cases
- Interventional cardiology cases
- Cardiac imaging and diagnostic challenges
- Cardiomyopathy case reports
- Cardiac surgery case studies
- Cardiovascular complications and comorbidities
- Preventive cardiology and lipidology
- Cardio-oncology
- Cardiovascular pharmacotherapy and adverse reactions
- Cardiovascular manifestations of systemic diseases

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Case Reports on Cardiology” should be chosen during your submission.
