

Special Issue on

Case Reports in Clinical and Experimental Medicine

Call for Papers

Case Reports in Clinical and Experimental Medicine is an interdisciplinary field focusing on the presentation and analysis of clinically significant and experimentally relevant medical cases. It covers rare diseases, unusual clinical manifestations, diagnostic challenges, novel treatments, treatment outcomes and emerging medical observations. By integrating clinical experience with experimental evidence, the field provides valuable insights into disease mechanisms, diagnosis, therapy and patient management, while contributing to medical knowledge and future research directions.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Case Reports in Clinical and Experimental Medicine. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Rare Diseases and Unusual Clinical Presentations
- Diagnostic Challenges and Novel Diagnostic Approaches
- Innovative Treatments and Therapeutic Interventions
- Unusual Presentations of Common Diseases
- Clinical Pharmacology and Adverse Drug Reactions
- Surgical Cases and Innovative Surgical Techniques
- Genetic and Precision Medicine Reports
- Oncology and Cancer Case Reports
- Infectious Diseases and Emerging Pathogens
- Clinical Immunology and Autoimmune Disorders
- Translational and Experimental Medicine Cases
- Multidisciplinary and Complex Clinical Cases
- Pathophysiological Insights via Provocative Testing
- Diagnostic Errors and Clinical Decision-Making
- Advanced Multimodal Imaging Correlations
- Negative Findings & Treatment Failures
- Long-Term Follow-up & Natural History
- Ethical, Social or Healthcare System Dilemmas

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Case Reports in Clinical and Experimental Medicine” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	November 25th, 2026
Publication Date	January 2027
