

Special Issue on Breast Cancer Research

Call for Papers

Breast cancer is cancer that develops from breast tissue. Signs of breast cancer may include a lump in the breast, a change in breast shape, dimpling of the skin, fluid coming from the nipple, a newly inverted nipple, or a red or scaly patch of skin.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Breast Cancer Research. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Pathophysiology
- Molecular biology
- Genetics
- Early detection and diagnosis
- Treatment and management
- Screening and prevention
- Surgical approaches
- Breast conserving surgery
- Reconstruction surgery
- Mastectomy
- Metastatic breast cancer
- Types & stages
- Risk factors
- Prognosis
- Epidemiology
- Statistics
- The impact of COVID-19
- Nursing and care

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Breast Cancer Research” should be chosen during your submission.
