

Special Issue on Culture, Values, and Beliefs

Call for Papers

Culture has the visible cultural features, which include artifacts, symbols, and practices; art and architecture; language, color, and dress; and social etiquette and traditions, as well as hidden cultural features, which include values, assumptions, and beliefs. Values and beliefs are the central feature of a culture. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Culture, Values, and Beliefs.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Culture, Values, and Beliefs. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- National culture
- Corporate culture
- Religion
- Literature
- Behavior influences
- Cultural norms
- Individualism and collectivism
- Values, customs, and culture
- Outcome orientation
- Social culture
- Material culture
- Ideological culture
- Beliefs and cultural differences

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Culture, Values, and Beliefs” should be selected during your submission.
