

Special Issue on Urban Economics and Management

Call for Papers

Urban Economics and Management is an interdisciplinary field that studies the economic dynamics, governance and management of cities. It focuses on urban development, land use, housing markets, infrastructure, transportation, public services, sustainability and policy-making, aiming to improve urban efficiency, equity, livability and long-term socio-economic development through evidence-based planning and strategic urban governance.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Urban Economics and Management. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Urban development and planning
- Urban land use & spatial economics
- Housing economics & policy
- Urban transportation and mobility economics
- Urban infrastructure and public services
- Local public finance
- Local government and public policy
- Agglomeration economies & urban growth
- Urban real estate & property development
- Environmental and sustainable urban management
- Urban governance, institutions & performance management
- Urban labor markets and workforce dynamics
- Urban innovation and smart cities
- Economics of urban social issues

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – *Urban Economics and Management” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Scientific Research
Open Access

Journal of Service Science and Management

ISSN Online: 1940-9907

Submission Deadline	April 28th, 2026
Publication Date	June 2026

For publishing inquiries, please feel free to contact the Editorial Assistant at submission.entrance1@scirp.org

JSSM Editorial Office