

Special Issue on Nursing Quality and Patient Safety

Call for Papers

High-quality health nursing is the overarching umbrella under which patient safety resides. Many nurses associations and health organizations advocate improving patient safety by promoting quality in nursing care and nurse's work lives. The special issue "nursing quality and patient safety" will be focusing on research on quality care, approaches to improving quality and safety in health care and current advances in patient safety.

In this special issue, we are going to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles that explore Nursing Quality and Patient Safety.

Authors should read over the journal's Authors' Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the "Special Issue" under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field "Special Issue—Nursing Quality and Patient Safety" should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Manuscript Deadline	October 23rd, 2013
Publication Date	December 2013
