

Special Issue on Pregnancy Complications

Call for Papers

Pregnancy Complications are health problems that are caused by pregnancy. Complications that occur primarily during childbirth are termed obstetric labor complications, and problems that occur primarily after childbirth are termed puerperal disorders.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Pregnancy Complications. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Gestational diabetes and hypertension
- Pain, infectious and diseases in pregnancy
- Recurrent pregnancy
- Ectopic pregnancy
- Miscarriage and preterm labor
- Eclampsia
- Causes and treatments
- Risk factors

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Pregnancy Complications” should be chosen during your submission.
